El Argentino Farm Club Exclusive country house gated community located on Provincial Route Nº 192, Luján District, Buenos Aires Province. Created in 1995 on what was once the traditional "Haras Argentino". Most of the original boxes have been preserved, and a new equestrian site has been constructed. It has a total of 408 hectares: 130 ha have been destined to common areas, and the remaining 278 ha have been subdivided in 113 country houses 1 ha to 6 ha each. This is a unique place covered with ancient groves only 70km from the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires. SERVICES: 24-hour security. Club House: spacious dining room, 2 living rooms, swimming pool, and play area for children. Lodge: for owners or guests with 6 bedrooms en suite, a spacious family room and dining room. Polo fields. Horseback riding. Equestrian circuits. Football pitch.

Country House Nº53: This is the second largest country house (55,457 m² / 596,934 ft²) It is also the highest located plot in relation to the Luján River (approximately 50 meters). At the entrance we see ancient eucalyptus woods that remain from the original Estate. The 5,5 ha display the work of a landscape architect. Besides the existing eucalyptus trees, more than 1,000 trees, plants and bushes from different species were planted 20 years ago.

The constructed surface is of approximately 500m² (5,382 ft²). The house has natural gas supply, and three-phase electrical network. The electrical cabin (with a sophisticated anti short-circuit and over-voltage system) is located on the park surrounding the main house. This cabin provides energy to the house through two separate cables in order for the supply to be reliable. Close to this cabin we find two water pumps (approximately 65m (215ft) deep) that supply the house's tank and the irrigation system respectively. The second pump also supplies water to the swimming pool. Inside this cabin we find the irrigation computer system, which englobes 4 different areas and a total of 40 different size and water flow sprinklers.

Characteristics:

The entire electric perimeter fence has three different wires located at different heights from the ground. There are three fruit plantation areas sheltered from the wind near the perimeter fence. The stone fruit plantation includes: plums, peaches, nectarines, pears, etc. The citric fruits plantation includes: oranges, grapefruits, tangerines, lemons, and kumquatts. The dry fruits plantation includes: almonds, nuts, and walnuts.

Main house: constructed in the year 2000 with high-end imported materials (floors, tiles, double-glass windows). It also has a modern alarm and video surveillance system.
