CHACRAS DEL PARANÁ

"Chacras del Paraná" Country Club, nearby Lima and 100km (62 mi) from Buenos Aires on National Route 9, is a sustainable project that englobes every nature-related feature. It's a perfect place for relaxing and enjoying the peace and tranquillity the country and its natural flora and fauna has to offer. It has a Club House, with mainly nautical activities, with its mooring area next to the port. There is also a Golf area and horse area in every country house.

The property is a unified 37,000m² (398,265 ft²) lot, with a construction area and a park, and another smaller corral area apt for animals. The lot is on a shared lake.

The 942m² MAIN HOUSE has 2 levels. On the ground level we find the entrance hall, very spacious 26mx5m living and dining room with doweled floors and large windows, toilette, kitchen with spacious dining area, laundry room, 4 bedrooms with 2 bathrooms (2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom) one of these bedrooms is connected to the playroom through a sliding door, and a 5th bedroom with a bathroom that could be used as the maid's quarters. On the first level we find the master bedroom with anteroom area, dressing room, spacious bathroom, and balcony/terrace surrounding the whole room. On the ground level there is also an internal patio with a pond.

26mx5m semi covered veranda.

Incorporated garage for 3 cars with automatic gate

14mx5m swimming pool coated with venecitas, and solarium.
